Soldiers Will Not

Soil Movements

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 26—Speakers before the convention of the American Hospital association in session here declared that soldiers returning from the battle front at the conclusion of the war would not be so favorable to "back to the soil" movement as is generally believed, despite their months in the open. The mind training along with vigorous bodies, they said, would create a desire to enter the commercial world and technical work.

"It is a widely prevalent misconception that these men who have roughed it in the open will never go back to inside work," declared T. B. Kider, vocational secretary of the invalided soldiers commission of Canada who is in this country assisting the United States vocational commission prepare for the permanently injured soldiers. Most of them have had enough of the soil to last them the rest of their lives.

Of the 28,000 soldiers sent back to Canada, he added, only 1,400 had undergone major amputations and only sixty were blind. Canada is offering training in 200 occupations for such veterans, and America will give more than that, the speaker said.

THE OUTBURST OF EVERETT TRUEBandits Planned To Pull Off Big Job in Minneapolis

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 26—That Dale Jones, one of the alleged leaders of the Jones-Lewis band of outlaws planned "to pull off a big job in Minneapolis" was the dying statement given the authorities by Roscoe Lancaster "Kansas City Blackie," fatally wounded in a gun fight with local police Tuesday, according to the statement which was made public at the prosecuting attorney's office today.

Lancaster said the last time he saw Jones was Sunday and that the latter intended driving to the Minnesota city in a motor car. The "job," Lancaster asserted, included the holding up of a bank there. Local officials notified police along the route to watch for the motor car but no trace of it had been found as far as was known today.

The police are investigating a theory that Jones may have figured in the robbery of a bank at Savanna, Okla., Tuesday afternoon, when two robbers locked the cashier in the vault and escaped with about $1,000.
